This is a dense collage of numerous small photographs, primarily featuring teenagers in various settings. The photos are arranged in an overlapping, non-linear fashion. Key elements include:

- A large photo in the upper center showing a person wearing a black t-shirt with the words "THUG UNIT" and a graphic of a handgun.
- A photo in the upper left showing a person in a white tank top with the text "A Little World of Differences" and "Go Adams".
- A group photo in the center showing several teenagers, some making peace signs, with one person wearing a green "CELTICS 34" jersey.
- A photo in the lower right showing three teenagers standing together, dressed in formal or semi-formal attire (black and red dresses).
- A photo in the lower center showing a large group of teenagers posing outdoors in front of a wooded area.
- Many other smaller photos showing individuals in various poses, some making faces, and others in social settings.

The overall theme is a collection of candid and posed moments from the lives of teenagers.

Remember When.....

We went to Europe.

Meagan got stuck in her pants.

Jacqui G. invented the "Jacqui Face."

Kelly believed the bar fight story.

Kelly broke the bubbler.

Meagan thought the FedEx truck was the ice cream man.

The British guy with the fuzzy hat yelled at us.

Erin hit John in the face with a lunch box.

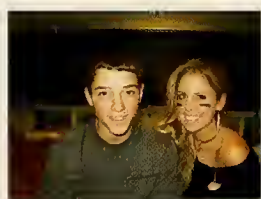

We spent three months planning the League, and it fell apart after a week.

PROM '06 -- we had the sickest Prom that killed everyone else's to come.

We had to leave Mrs. White and the dream team.

Lucie drove Kendal home from soccer practice and Kendal forgot her key so Lucie had to climb through a second story window head first and got stuck. Kelly Rooney laughed like a seal. Kristen flipped out that time we burned steel wool in chemistry until the janitors came.

Joe became the man. We beat the seniors in spirit week. We could have iced coffee in the morning. April Fools went on for a month. Corey got hit with a locker. Mr. A. shared his feelings in economics. Corey Blauss wanted to fight everyone. Mr. Knief got duct taped to the wall. You didn't need a hall pass for the library. The school wasn't allergy free. The locker room didn't smell. Jon White's head wasn't so big. (never happened). We all wore the Rich Picanzo shirts. Dunham became the second strongest kid in the grade. Cory became a stud. Bill accused Dan and Grecco of using morse code during poker. We could eat in school. (GASP!) Tiffany lost her pants in gym...and then Chrissy did the next day. Mr. Green would make you feel guilty for something you never did. We figured out Dan had a butt chin. Liam's jeep blew up. Nate's car flipped over. Jon White fell through Kirby's barn roof. Caity Crowley tripped during the bomb threat. We had to stand out in the snow for a fire drill. Girls (and guys) wore pants that were actually intact when you bought them. Most girls in '07 weren't so dramatic.....wait...nevermind.

Sarah Liz,

Where has the time gone? It seems like just yesterday that you were dancing with Minnie Mouse and regaling us with elaborate stories in your little squeaky voice. It continues to amaze us when we think about the things you have accomplished in such a short time already- whether you are climbing to the top of the Great Wall or the Sydney Harbor Bridge, fearlessly repelling down cliffs in New Zealand, or trekking across Europe to places most of us simply dream about...all while remaining unpretentious to those around you.

You have balanced your life, precariously at times, maintaining remarkable grades while perfecting your flute playing and bringing us to tears with your beautiful dancing. Now, here we are at your graduation ceremony, your commencement- not an end, but a beginning- a beginning of your future, and how bright yours glows before you!

So, when people ask us about our little girl, our baby, our beautiful Sarah Liz, we proudly say that she is a kind, caring loving and mature young woman who will definitely make a difference in the world. I think Dr. Suess summed it up best when he wrote: "Oh, the places you'll go...And will you succeed? Yes! You will, indeed (98 and 3/4 percent guaranteed)."

You could not have made us any more proud of you and we love you so very much.

Love,

Mom and Dad

Lit' Liz,

I'm so blessed to have you as my sister and my best friend. You've always been there to give and receive "happy hugs" and I know that you can always make me laugh. I can't believe that you're a senior and before you know it, you'll be headed off to college. Wherever you go, I know you'll be their shining star. I'm so proud of all that you've done. You're an amazing flute player, a beautiful dancer, an intelligent woman, and a great friend. I love you Liz, don't ever change.

Love,
Katie

Ali Spicer

Ali,

We are so proud of you and the young woman that you have become. You have stayed true to yourself and what you believe in. We know you'll do great things....you always have.

" Our wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to.
You dreams stay big, your worries stay small,
You never need to carry more than you can hold,
And while you're out getting where you're getting to,
We hope you know somebody loves you, and wants the same things to,
Yeah, this, is our wish.
We hope you never look back, but you never forget,
All the ones who love you, and the place you left." -Rascal Flatts Congratulations!

Mylee,

All of your life you have been your own person. Easy going, loving, caring and generous. You have always known what you wanted, a true self starter. Don't let life change you, change it for the better.

It will be lonely without your hugs and kisses, stories and song. Now it's your time to fly.

We are very proud of you, and will always be here for you. Loved ones from heaven and earth will be watching over you.

Congratulations, and best wishes for the happiest future.

Dear Liam,
It seems like just the other day that we were playing with Lego's and going to little shoes for Velcro sneakers. Time passes too quickly for parents as we watch you grow up from a baby to a fine young man. Your life has been interesting and rewarding and we have loved sharing every minute of it. You're an excellent skier, black belt in karate, and a BMX District Champion. Your passion for life and your joy of living makes it a privilege to call you our son. We wish you the best that life has to offer, as you graduate and enter the Marine Corp.

Chrissy,

Congratulations on graduating in the top of your class.
It is hard to believe that your graduation is here. It seems like just yesterday you were a little girl but now you have grown up to be a remarkable young woman. We couldn't be prouder of not only all your academic achievemnts throughout your school years but the many activities that you have been involved with both inside and outside of school. As parents you have made it easy for us and we want to thank you. The only worry we had is that you were doing way too much with all your school work and activities but even then you managed to achieve everything you set out to do which always amazed us. You are also a great role model for your brother who you influence more than you know and again we thank you. As you begin life on your own always remember that through the good times and the bad we will always be here for you with unconditional love and support. We are truly grateful for having you as a member of this family and will miss you more than you can imagine.

Message to the class of 2007
from Mr. Bianchi
"Be here now, but pay attention to what is coming"

Ashley-Anne Kennedy

Ashley,

You have made us such proud grandparents. In the blink of an eye you have grown from a young child into a very special young lady. Through the years you have shown your beautiful smile, warm personality, your kindness and gentle caring qualities, be proud sweetheart. You have faced all your challenges with true heart, courage and dignity far beyond your young years. Remember you have accomplished so much Ashley, there is no mountain that you cannot climb as long as you set your goals. Now is the time to look forward to your future as it has only just begun. We thank you for all the joy and unfailing love you give to us each day. God bless you with success and a lifetime of happiness, may God always walk with you.

Please put on your jacket!

Congratulations!!!

Love always,

Pa Pa & Nana

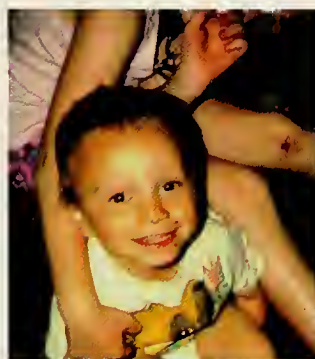

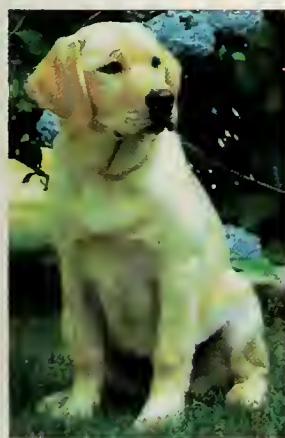

Ashley-Anne, words can't express how very proud we are of you and everything you have become. Thank you for just being you, you're the greatest joy our hearts will ever know. From the moment you came into the world, you have been determined to do things with both pride and dignity. We dressed you in pink for ballet, but you found baseball and cheerleading more of a competitive challenge. It has been an inspiration watching you succeed with your dreams, motivation along with your attitude will bring you where you want to go. God gave you a clean canvas to paint your own life masterpiece, with every memory, your family and friends, tears and laughter, love and happiness. The masterpiece you are creating is with your whole heart and soul, courage, beauty, and spirit. There will be only one painting such as yours so reach for the stars and never settle for second best. Be true to yourself and remember the best of life is yet to come. Congratulations Ashley-Anne. We love you, may God guide you, bless you, and watch over you always. "Remember peaches, if your socks match. We will all know you are pretending."

With all our love,
Mommy, Daddy, Bryan and Daniel
